

English Teacher

Malden Catholic, a Xaverian Brothers Sponsored Codivisional High School for young men and women, seeks a candidate for an English teaching position for the 2021-2022 school year. Master's degree in field (or working towards) preferred.

Skills/Qualifications:

- Willingness to support Catholic mission of the School.
- Content Area Competency and Excellence
- Classroom Management Skills
- Verbal Communication & Presentation Skills
- Self-Motivation and Ability to Motivate Students
- Flexibility

Candidates should have the competency and passion to engage every student in a rigorous college preparatory curriculum, as well as a desire to become an active and collegial member of an adult community of learners.

The Teacher:

- Teaches 5 periods, courses as assigned.
- Models the Catholic values of the School.
- Inspires, promotes, and nurtures the secondary level education of students by planning and tailoring courses of study; monitoring, assisting with, and assessing academic efforts.
- Provides a safe classroom environment conducive to learning and attentive to varied learning styles.
- Keeps parents informed of student progress.

Malden Catholic encourages all members of the faculty, in addition to teaching, to be involved in the life of the school beyond the classroom, supporting the wide range of co-curricular, intramural, and interscholastic programs we offer.

The English Department develops student ability to comprehend the written and spoken word and to communicate effectively. The Department aims to inspire proficiency in reading, writing, listening, and speaking.

Malden Catholic, located seven miles north of Boston, has a male enrollment of 400, Grades 9-12, and a female enrollment of 350, Grades 9-12, drawing from over 40 communities. Classes are single gender.

For more information about our academic, spiritual and student life programs, please visit our website at www.maldencatholic.org.

Interested candidates, please provide electronically cover letter, resume, college transcript (unofficial), and 2 letters of recommendation to

Rose Maria Redman, Principal at redmanr@maldencatholic.org.

Position Posted: May 6, 2021. Open until filled.

Biology Teacher

Malden Catholic, a Xaverian Brothers Sponsored Codivisional High School for young men and women, seeks a candidate for a Biology teaching position for the 2021-2022 school year. Master's degree in field (or working towards) preferred.

Skills/Qualifications:

- Willingness to support Catholic mission of the School.
- Content Area Competency and Excellence
- Classroom Management Skills
- Verbal Communication & Presentation Skills
- Self-Motivation and Ability to Motivate Students
- Flexibility

Candidates should have the competency and passion to engage every student in a rigorous college preparatory curriculum, as well as a desire to become an active and collegial member of an adult community of learners.

The Teacher:

- Teaches 5 periods, courses as assigned.
- Models the Catholic values of the School.
- Inspires, promotes, and nurtures the secondary level education of students by planning and tailoring courses of study; monitoring, assisting with, and assessing academic efforts.
- Provides a safe classroom environment conducive to learning and attentive to varied learning styles.
- Keeps parents informed of student progress.

Malden Catholic encourages all members of the faculty, in addition to teaching, to be involved in the life of the school beyond the classroom, supporting the wide range of co-curricular, intramural, and interscholastic programs we offer.

The overall purposes and objectives of the Science Department are to introduce the student to the scientific method; to integrate text and class work with practical lab experience; to relate the science learned in the classroom to the real world; to build the discipline, academic confidence, and competence in order to further the student's study of science successfully.

Malden Catholic, located seven miles north of Boston, has a male enrollment of 400, Grades 9-12, and a female enrollment of 350, Grades 9-12, drawing from over 40 communities. Classes are single gender.

For more information about our academic, spiritual and student life programs, please visit our website at www.maldencatholic.org.

Interested candidates, please provide electronically cover letter, resume, college transcript (unofficial), and 2 letters of recommendation to

Rose Maria Redman, Principal at redmanr@maldencatholic.org.

Position Posted: May 6, 2021. Open until filled.

Chemistry/Physics Teacher

Malden Catholic, a Xaverian Brothers Sponsored Codivisional High School for young men and women, seeks a candidate for a Chemistry/Physics teaching position for the 2021-2022 school year. Master's degree in field (or working towards) preferred.

Skills/Qualifications:

- Willingness to support Catholic mission of the School.
- Content Area Competency and Excellence
- Classroom Management Skills
- Verbal Communication & Presentation Skills
- Self-Motivation and Ability to Motivate Students
- Flexibility

Candidates should have the competency and passion to engage every student in a rigorous college preparatory curriculum, as well as a desire to become an active and collegial member of an adult community of learners.

The Teacher:

- Teaches 5 periods, courses as assigned.
- Models the Catholic values of the School.
- Inspires, promotes, and nurtures the secondary level education of students by planning and tailoring courses of study; monitoring, assisting with, and assessing academic efforts.
- Provides a safe classroom environment conducive to learning and attentive to varied learning styles.
- Keeps parents informed of student progress.

Malden Catholic encourages all members of the faculty, in addition to teaching, to be involved in the life of the school beyond the classroom, supporting the wide range of co-curricular, intramural, and interscholastic programs we offer.

The overall purposes and objectives of the Science Department are to introduce the student to the scientific method; to integrate text and class work with practical lab experience; to relate the science learned in the classroom to the real world; to build the discipline, academic confidence, and competence in order to further the student's study of science successfully.

Malden Catholic, located seven miles north of Boston, has a male enrollment of 400, Grades 9-12, and a female enrollment of 350, Grades 9-12, drawing from over 40 communities. Classes are single gender.

For more information about our academic, spiritual and student life programs, please visit our website at www.maldencatholic.org.

Interested candidates, please provide electronically cover letter, resume, college transcript (unofficial), and 2 letters of recommendation to

Rose Maria Redman, Principal at redmanr@maldencatholic.org.

Position Posted: May 6, 2021. Open until filled.

Math Teacher

Malden Catholic, a Xaverian Brothers Sponsored Codivisional High School for young men and women, seeks a candidate for a Math teaching position for the 2021-2022 school year. Master's degree in field (or working towards) preferred.

Skills/Qualifications:

- Willingness to support Catholic mission of the School.
- Content Area Competency and Excellence
- Classroom Management Skills
- Verbal Communication & Presentation Skills
- Self-Motivation and Ability to Motivate Students
- Flexibility

Candidates should have the competency and passion to engage every student in a rigorous college preparatory curriculum, as well as a desire to become an active and collegial member of an adult community of learners.

The Teacher:

- Teaches 5 periods, courses as assigned.
- Models the Catholic values of the School.
- Inspires, promotes, and nurtures the secondary level education of students by planning and tailoring courses of study; monitoring, assisting with, and assessing academic efforts.
- Provides a safe classroom environment conducive to learning and attentive to varied learning styles.
- Keeps parents informed of student progress.

Malden Catholic encourages all members of the faculty, in addition to teaching, to be involved in the life of the school beyond the classroom, supporting the wide range of co-curricular, intramural, and interscholastic programs we offer.

The Math Department aims to produce students' confidence in their mathematical ability and problem-solving skills, regardless of their ability or prior experience in mathematics. In addition, the department seeks to develop in every student the computational proficiency, number sense, and solid mathematics foundation that may be applied and extended in subsequent mathematics and science classes.

Malden Catholic, located seven miles north of Boston, has a male enrollment of 400, Grades 9-12, and a female enrollment of 350, Grades 9-12, drawing from over 40 communities. Classes are single gender.

For more information about our academic, spiritual and student life programs, please visit our website at www.maldencatholic.org.

Interested candidates, please provide electronically cover letter, resume, college transcript (unofficial), and 2 letters of recommendation to

Rose Maria Redman, Principal at redmanr@maldencatholic.org.

Position Posted: May 6, 2021. Open until filled.

Theology Teacher

Malden Catholic, a Xaverian Brothers Sponsored Codivisional High School for young men and women, seeks a candidate for a Theology teaching position for the 2021-2022 school year. Master's degree in field (or working towards) preferred.

Skills/Qualifications:

- Willingness to support Catholic mission of the School.
- Content Area Competency and Excellence
- Classroom Management Skills
- Verbal Communication & Presentation Skills
- Self-Motivation and Ability to Motivate Students
- Flexibility

Candidates should have the competency and passion to engage every student in a rigorous college preparatory curriculum, as well as a desire to become an active and collegial member of an adult community of learners.

The Teacher:

- Teaches 5 periods, courses as assigned.
- Models the Catholic values of the School.
- Inspires, promotes, and nurtures the secondary level education of students by planning and tailoring courses of study; monitoring, assisting with, and assessing academic efforts.
- Provides a safe classroom environment conducive to learning and attentive to varied learning styles.
- Keeps parents informed of student progress.

Malden Catholic encourages all members of the faculty, in addition to teaching, to be involved in the life of the school beyond the classroom, supporting the wide range of co-curricular, intramural, and interscholastic programs we offer.

It is the teacher who is primarily responsible for creating a loving, caring, Christian atmosphere for learning and growth in the classroom. The teacher's Christian attitudes and values should be seen, felt, and emulated by the students.

Malden Catholic, located seven miles north of Boston, has a male enrollment of 400, Grades 9-12, and a female enrollment of 350, Grades 9-12, drawing from over 40 communities. Classes are single gender.

For more information about our academic, spiritual and student life programs, please visit our website at www.maldencatholic.org.

Interested candidates, please provide electronically cover letter, resume, college transcript (unofficial), and 2 letters of recommendation to

Rose Maria Redman, Principal at redmanr@maldencatholic.org.

Position Posted: May 6, 2021. Open until filled.

School Counselor

Malden Catholic, a Xaverian Brothers Sponsored Codivisional High School for young men and women, seeks a candidate for a School Counselor position for the 2021-2022 school year. Master's degree in field (or working towards) preferred.

Skills/Qualifications:

- Willingness to support Catholic mission of the School.
- Content Area Competency and Excellence
- Verbal Communication & Presentation Skills
- Self-Motivation and Ability to Motivate Students
- Flexibility

Candidates should have the competency and passion to engage every student in a rigorous college preparatory curriculum, as well as a desire to become an active and collegial member of an adult community of learners.

The School Counselor:

- Models the Catholic values of the School.
- Provides a comprehensive, developmental program for students.
- Structures sessions and activities to meet the needs of the students.
- Consults with teachers, staff, and parents to enhance his/her effectiveness in helping students.
- Works in conjunction with school staff to promote MC's school program.
- Advocates for and provides comprehensive and supportive counseling to all students.

Malden Catholic encourages all members of the staff to be involved in the life of the school beyond the classroom, supporting the wide range of co-curricular, intramural, and interscholastic programs we offer.

Malden Catholic, located seven miles north of Boston, has a male enrollment of 400, Grades 9-12, and a female enrollment of 350, Grades 9-12, drawing from over 40 communities. Classes are single gender.

For more information about our academic, spiritual and student life programs, please visit our website at www.maldencatholic.org.

Interested candidates, please provide electronically cover letter, resume, college transcript (unofficial), and 2 letters of recommendation to

Rose Maria Redman, Principal at redmanr@maldencatholic.org.

Position Posted: May 6, 2021. Open until filled.

